

Ontario Engineering Competition 2014

Congratulations, and welcome to the 2014 Ontario Engineering!

The 2014 Ontario Engineering Competition is under a week away; the executive team and several volunteers have been working tirelessly to make sure all final details are in order and that this will be an excellent weekend.

Within this document please find some basic information you will need to know for the weekend's events including:

- What to bring
- Map of the UOIT North Campus
- Hotels being used and their locations
- Location of the Welcome Dinner and Awards Banquet

The majority of this information along with a weekend schedule can be found on our website <http://oec2014.engineering.uoit.ca/> and more extensive details pertaining to competition problem statements and work rooms will be given during competitor briefing noted on the general schedule.

I look forward to seeing you all soon.

Sincerely,

Samuel Little

Sponsorship Director,

2014 Ontario Engineering Competition
